Time: 30 minutes

Your English teacher has asked you to write a story. The story must begin with this sentence:

Just as the film began, I received a text message on my mobile phone.

Don't forget to mention in your story:

- who you were with;
- what kind of film it was;
- who sent you the message;
- what had happened;
- what you did.

You should write 90 - 100 words.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Part 3. Reading
Time: 30 minutes

Task 1

Read the article. Label the paragraphs 1–6 with the pieces of advice (a–g). There is ONE piece of advice which you do not need to use.

- | | |
|---|------------------------------------|
| a) Make a good first impression | e) Do some research |
| b) Tell the truth | f) Be prepared to answer questions |
| c) Wear the right clothes | g) Have a small talk |
| d) Avoid controversial topics of conversation | |

1) _____

Find out information about the parents before you meet them. Do you have anything in common with them? Have they been on holiday recently? You should ask your girlfriend/boyfriend about her/his parents' hobbies, interests and favourite topics of conversation.

2) _____

It's fine to wear your old jeans and Nirvana T-shirt most of the time, but you should make an effort when you meet the parents. However, you should not go to the opposite extreme: don't wear your "job interview" clothes. You should be clean and tidy, but not too formal.

3) _____

First impressions are very important. You should greet them with a smile and a firm handshake for Dad, and a quick kiss (on the cheek) for Mum. You mustn't call them by their first names. Wait until they give you permission.

4) _____

You should be honest about what you do. If you are an IT technician, you shouldn't say you are a research scientist, information architect or web millionaire. If you are unemployed, you should tell them about your plans for a brilliant career.

5) _____

You probably don't share the same opinion or tastes about most things, so you must avoid subjects such as politics or religion. You can ask them about what your girlfriend or boyfriend was like as a child – parents love talking about their prince or princess.

6) _____

You should think of a good answer to the question: What are you going to do in the future?

Climate Change March

In London today, 20,000 people took part in protest marches and demonstrations as world leaders were meeting for climate change talks. The event was organized by the Campaign Against Global Warming.

The day started early outside the US embassy with poetry readings and speeches. Protesters then marched slowly to Trafalgar Square, carrying banners and shouting slogans.

A group of protesters on bicycles made their way to 10 Downing Street and delivered a letter to the Prime Minister demanding urgent action on climate change.

By three o'clock in the afternoon, Trafalgar Square was swarming with people and buzzing with activity. There was a carnival atmosphere with music provided by a samba band, a New Orleans jazz band and Scottish pipers.

Most protesters marched peacefully, but a small group of people broke away from the peaceful demonstrators. They smashed shop windows and tried to set fire to a supermarket. Five people were arrested.
